

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of:

PETITION OF ADVANCED TELECOMMUNICATIONS)	CASE NO.
CORPORATION FOR EXEMPTION FROM REGULATION)	92-369
FOR ENHANCED SERVICES)

O R D E R

On August 26, 1992, Advanced Telecommunications Corporation, d/b/a ATC Long Distance ("ATC Long Distance") filed a petition for exemption of regulation pursuant to KRS 278.512 requesting exemption for its voice messaging service. On November 2, 1992, ATC Long Distance was ordered to respond to Commission data requests regarding its provision of voice messaging. On December 2, 1992, ATC Long Distance filed a motion to withdraw its petition for regulatory exemption in lieu of filing its responses to the Commission's Order. ATC Long Distance also filed with the Commission a proposed tariff for voice messaging service. That tariff became effective on January 1, 1993.

The Commission, having considered the record and motion of ATC Long Distance and having been otherwise sufficiently advised, HEREBY ORDERS that ATC Long Distance's motion to withdraw its petition for regulatory exemption of enhanced services, including voice messaging service, is granted.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 1st day of February, 1993.
